

Hull Public Library Presents

A Children's Concert with Stephen Baird

With his legendary "bag full of surprises" of guitars, mandolin, hammered dulcimer, animal costumes, puppets, whistles and kazoos... Stephen will entertain the child in us all with lots of songs, stories and leprechaun charm. Stephen Baird is an internationally known street performer with appearances world wide at festivals and universities including the Kennedy Center for Performing Arts in Washington, DC. He was also featured in a nationally distributed PBS and Discovery Channel documentary films.
